Desire greater spiritual wisdom

Then you. . .

Owe yourself the gift of a Spiritual Response Therapy session!

Keep reading to find out what Spiritual Response Therapy is and how it can help you create a better, more fulfilling life.

What is Spiritual Response Therapy?

As a major part of my Spiritual Coaching-Counseling practice, I use an energy healing modality called Spiritual Response Therapy (SRT) to help people clear the “programming” at the core of their longstanding problems.

The result?

Enhanced happiness, confidence, success, and personal freedom.

SRT is a spiritual technology that “uses dowsing to bypass the conscious mind and its negative programming and connect with the subconscious and guidance within. As negative programs and blocks are identified, they are cleared and replaced with positive energy and inner peace.”

What is dowsing?

Dowsing is the art of using a pendulum, dowsing rods or other instruments to uncover hidden objects or information. Since at least the 16th century, people have been using dowsing rods to find underground water, metal and minerals. Click here for a very interesting and informative article on the history of dowsing.

As a certified SRT practitioner, I practice the art of “spiritual dowsing.” Working directly with Spirit, I use a pendulum and a series of charts created by SRT founder Robert Detzler, to uncover and clear the programming at the source of problems and conflicts.

How does dowsing work?

Although there is no current mainstream “scientific” explanation for why dowsing (or ESP, remote viewing, channeling, etc.) works, there is a spiritual explanation. On my website I outline my simple spiritual philosophy that I believe explains why it is effective.

It’s called the One Life Principle.

What is the One Life Principle?

This ancient idea says that there is a single underlying power in the universe but the expression of this power takes many forms.

Scientists call this power Energy, Nature, the Unified Field, Zero Point or Consciousness.

Theologians call it God or Spirit.

This power expresses itself as you, me and everyone and everything else in the Universe. When we wrap our minds around this simple premise, we realize that because everyone and everything comes from the same spiritual source, we are all spiritual. If we all come from the same spiritual source, then there is no separation – not only between us and God – but between us and anyone or anything else.

Like computers hooked up to a network server, each one of us has the inherent ability to access any and all information stored in the spiritual database of the Universe, sometimes referred to as the Akashic Records.

As spiritual beings, we have the right to ask and receive healing and clearing of our soul records that contain negative and outmoded programming and to replace this programming with peace and love.

The use of dowsing in Spiritual Response Therapy is a powerful and sacred tool that can not only greatly improve our daily lives, it can also help us jumpstart our spiritual evolution and wake up to our divine nature and power.

“

I work diligently and lovingly on behalf of all my clients and often offer energetic support beyond the session. At the very least, every one of my clients can expect to feel listened to and supported no matter what the issue or the outcome.

What is the “programming” that SRT is designed to clear?

SRT presupposes that we have all lived many lifetimes—past, present, future and parallel.

According to Spiritual Response Therapy, “a program is a belief that has been accumulated in the soul records as a result of experiences before the Soul incarnates, while the Soul is incarnated and between lives while the Soul is in the spiritual realms.” (Detzler, 91.)

In other words, these programs, or “beliefs” that have accumulated in the Soul, inform our feelings and our approach in this lifetime often leaving us with a feeling of helplessness or of being stuck in an emotion or experience we cannot seem to shift.

In an SRT session, we first identify those negative programs and beliefs and then clear them. The clearing of these programs connects you closer to Spirit and to your own innate wisdom, allowing you to make decisions that reflect your true nature and heart’s desire.

Can you give some examples of “programs” that can be cleared by SRT?

Some examples of programs, among many others, that SRT can identify and clear are:

- | | | |
|-------------------|-------------------|--------------|
| ✓ Low Self-Esteem | ✓ Self-Punishment | ✓ Bitterness |
| ✓ Hate | ✓ Self-Limitation | ✓ Betrayal |
| ✓ Anger | ✓ Unworthiness | ✓ Rejection |
| ✓ Abuse | ✓ Fear | ✓ Resentment |
| ✓ Guilt | ✓ Abandonment | ✓ Jealousy |

After a full Spiritual Response Therapy clearing, many clients report a shift in their perception of their reality and are able to tackle the issues in their lives with greater ease and confidence.

Some report that their problems seem to have effortlessly healed.

However, SRT is not a magic wand. While some people feel its effects immediately, others require multiple sessions to feel a shift. Others might require a multidisciplinary approach that may include other energetic or psychological support.

Who do you work with?

My clients come from all walks of life, including: aspiring dancers, actors and artists; medical doctors and therapists; marketing, advertising, sales and financial professionals; mothers and fathers; newly graduated college graduates; teachers and students.

I have used SRT to help people with issues related to career; finance and abundance; relationship and family; and the emotional and spiritual components of health-related issues. I have worked with people in spiritual or emotional crisis (often as a spiritual adjunct to psychotherapy) and with people who are seeking to advance their spiritual wisdom and evolution.

Does Spiritual Response Therapy work for everyone?

There is no modality or technique that I know of that works for everyone. The majority of my clients report improvement as a result of Spiritual Response Therapy but a very small minority do not sense a shift on the conscious level. There are a multitude of reasons why this could be the case.

I work diligently and lovingly on behalf of all my clients and often offer energetic support beyond the session. At the very least, every one of my clients can expect to feel listened to and supported no matter what the issue or the outcome.

What is a typical session like?

Sessions can be conducted in person, over the phone or by Skype or Facetime. There is no physical contact involved.

A first session can take between 1 -1 ½ hours. Follow up sessions usually last an hour but often a half hour or even less is all that is necessary.

There is no special preparation or belief system required. You don't have to believe in past lives and you don't need to be overly "spiritual." An open mind and heart is all you need to benefit from SRT.

What is the cost?

Please contact me to schedule a complimentary 20-30 minute consultation to discuss whether Spiritual Response Therapy might be a good choice for you.

Should you decide to proceed with a session, a preliminary full clearing takes between 1-1 ½ hours and costs between $120 and $180. Additional sessions usually run an hour or less and are billed at the rate of $120/hr.

Discounted rates are sometimes available depending on my availability. Please inquire about discounts for special circumstances.

What clients are saying about Tami Coyne

“Tami has helped me develop a better understanding of so many things, including my career, my loved ones, and myself. Since I've started working with her, I've become a much more patient person - we're all on this spiritual journey together!”

– MD, Baltimore, MD

“Tami is an insightful, gifted, compassionate healer. I have experienced this work firsthand, and have also witnessed it changing (and quite possibly saving) the lives of others as well. With her encouragement, intuition, grace and fantastic sense of humor I have found peace and closure with issues that I thought were with me for the long haul. When I practice listing what I am grateful for in this life, Tami has a permanent place on that list.”

– MB, Pleasantville, NY

“Rev. Dr. Tami Coyne is one of the most compassionate and skilled people I've ever encountered. Tami has a highly developed intellect, keen intuition, and an exceptional “EQ.” Most importantly, she is also extremely grounded. I recommend her highly!”

–CAM, Tarrytown, NY

“I have had the privilege of working with Tami for almost ten years. She has helped me navigate some very challenging times in both my professional and personal worlds. Tami uses a combination of keen intellect and humor with wisdom and enormous generosity. She is positive, challenging, and always interested in my growth as a person. She has enormous passion and integrity, and I am so very lucky to have her on my team cheering me on, urging me to reach beyond my comfort zone. I feel safe and so very blessed to know she will help me face life's challenges in an authentic way.”

–HW, Atlanta, GA

“Of all the countless healers and therapists I have worked with, Tami Coyne is my all-time favorite. She is intuitive beyond words and grounded at the same time—a rare combination. Tami will help you bring to consciousness and clear garbage that you probably would never see, let alone understand on your own; but when you see it with Tami, your life starts to make sense, to come into better focus. And she will make you laugh!”

–SS, Belgium

About Tami Coyne
